

Ariane
CUTLERY

Introducing Ariane's New Cutlery Collection – a symphony of sophistication curated exclusively for the hospitality sector, HoReCa industry, and discerning chefs. Ariane's New Cutlery Collection is not just about utensils; it's a culinary companion, elevating every dish and dining occasion with a perfect blend of aesthetics and functionality. The shape and structure of each series are meticulously crafted to meet the demanding standards of the HoReCa industry with an emphasis on strength and durability.

We ensure that these collections are not just tools but companions in the culinary journey of chefs and the dining experience of the HoReCa sector. Whether it's the sleek lines of Nova or the intricate details of Corbett, each series is designed with the dynamic and high-paced nature of the hospitality sector in mind, catering to chefs and establishments that prioritize both style and resilience while maintaining its aesthetic allure.

Serenity

Ditch the dinnertime duds because Serenity cutlery is so fresh it should come with a "just launched" label, making it the ideal choice for the HoReCa industry. Made from steel that's tougher & shinier than your average critic, this collection is an ergonomic dream, fitting into hands like a celebrity into a first-class seat.

They don't call it serenity for nothing; these beauties stay sharp enough to dissect culinary trends, meeting the high-performance expectations of chefs in professional kitchens.

Enhance your tablescape beyond "flatware." This is cutlery with charisma, the kind that sparks compliments quicker than a perfectly chilled amuse-bouche, ensuring a stylish presentation in upscale culinary venues.

Aria

Say no to cookie-cutter cutlery. Let your guests feast their eyes on Aria, a culinary masterpiece designed with the discerning tastes of the hospitality sector and chefs in mind. Plates adorned with culinary masterpieces, complemented by the timeless elegance of Aria. Its name, meaning "air" in Italian, reflects the collection's light, graceful design. Each piece feels smooth and substantial, a concerto of classic lines and subtle detailing.

But Aria isn't just a pretty face for the dining table; it's crafted with Ariane's renowned artistry, combining beauty with brawn to meet the rigorous standards of a professional kitchen. The finish creates a shield against scratches and wear, ensuring Aria looks flawless year after year, even in the demanding environment of a restaurant kitchen. The secret lies in forged steel blades, honed to perfection, delivering effortless slicing that never disappoints in the hands of skilled chefs.

And because time is precious in the fast-paced world of culinary arts, Aria cleans up beautifully in the dishwasher, meeting the practical needs of chefs who strive for excellence in both presentation and efficiency. Plus, the sleek storage box keeps your masterpiece collection safe and sound. So, impress your guests, not just with your culinary artistry, but with the impeccable style of Aria.
